

Dedication

In loving memory of my father, Peter Oppenheim (1942-1998) - my first physics teacher, who encouraged my curiosity, patiently answered my questions, and patiently asked his own. He would have loved to flip through this thing, and I had always imagined giving him a copy.